

UNESCO's Priority Africa and Internet Study - relevance to Human Rights Online

10:30 to 16:00 - 6 September 2015

Room: C.H. 1, African Union Conference Centre (AUCC), Roosevelt Street Old Airport Area Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

AGENDA

Time	Details
09:00 – 10:30	IGF orientation with all IGF participants in main IGF room, including coffee break.
10:30 - 10:45	Room change – from main room to C.H.1
10:45 – 11:15	Session 1. Welcome and introduction – UNESCO Welcome to event and an overview of the study.
11:15 – 13:00	Session 2. A panel on the study in the context of Africa. Moderator: Chris Kabwato , Highway Africa Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Grace Githaiga, Kenya ICT Action Network – Freedom of Expression • Ephraim Kenyanito, Access – Privacy • Dora Mawutor, Media Foundation for West Africa, Ethical Dimensions of the Information Society • Emilar Vushe, Association for Progressive Communications, APC, Access to knowledge and information
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch Break
14:00 – 15:00	Session 3. Discussion on how the study can be used by civil society: Anriette Esterhuysen, Association for Progressive Communications (APC)
15:00 - 15:15	Session 4. Wrap up, closing and acknowledgements: UNESCO (followed by afternoon tea break).

